Dear Eric,

Thank you for the time you allocated to solving Maartens problem. I have learned a lot. And, most critically, in choosing a strategic partner, you have proved yourself to us as the leader in this market. I am very comfortable with Alpha Power Solutions and will be your brand ambassador when working with the commercial sector for Power Factor Correction.

Maarten is like a different person now and we have regained his confidence as a result of your visit.

We will see you at the Trade Show in 2 weeks time, and I hope to have some opportunities available for quoting on power factor correction soon.

With kind regards,

Clint
